

POLICY FOR GOVERNANCE OF JUNIOR OPTIMIST
INTERNATIONAL, THE YOUTH MEMBERSHIP OF OPTIMIST INTERNATIONAL
(Updated September 2023)

POLICY I: NAME

SECTION 1: The JOI Clubs program of Optimist International shall be named Junior Optimist International (JOI).

POLICY II: PURPOSES

SECTION 1: The purposes of Junior Optimist International shall be to provide opportunities for members, individually and collectively, to participate in community serving activities, develop leadership abilities and prepare for responsible roles in society.

POLICY III: MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1: Clubs. Membership in JOI shall consist of affiliated Alpha, Junior Optimist, and Octagon Clubs in the jurisdiction of Optimist International.

SECTION 2: Requirements for Affiliation. Clubs applying for membership shall become affiliated with Junior Optimist International by chartering under an Optimist Club paying all enrollment, membership and other fees, and completing the necessary reports and rosters as delegated by the JOI Board of Directors. Upon the approval of both Optimist Governors, where applicable, an Optimist Club outside of the Optimist International District where the JOI Club would exist may sponsor a JOI Club. JOI Clubs of this nature will count in the Sponsoring Club's District.

For areas where sponsorship by an Optimist Club is not possible, Clubs applying for membership may become affiliated with JOI by meeting all requirements for affiliation. Clubs must have received approval of the Optimist District Governor and have had the organizational meeting chaired by an Optimist International Field Representative and chartering with Optimist International. Each JOI Club that is not sponsored by an Optimist Club will pay a one-time $100 enrollment fee.

SECTION 3: Revocation of Charter. Any Club that fails to conform to the policies of Junior Optimist International or whose conduct or activity is prejudicial to the best interests of Junior Optimist International and Optimist International may have its charter revoked by the Junior Optimist International Board of Directors. Upon such revocation, a Club shall have the right of appeal in the manner prescribed in Policy IV, Section 4-C.

Where a Sponsoring Optimist Club surrenders its Charter, the JOI Club will continue to operate directly under the auspices of Optimist International. The Optimist District Governor will be advised of the situation by Optimist International. Attempts will be made by the Optimist District to find another Sponsor Club and the responsibility for supervision of the JOI Club will be given to the District Officer responsible for JOI Clubs.

POLICY IV: MEMBER CLUBS

SECTION 1: Officers. A member Club shall elect its officers each year by April 15 and shall report to Optimist International and to the District JOI Clubs chairman by May 30, the names and addresses of the newly elected officers. Club officers shall assume their official responsibilities at the beginning of the administrative year for which they were elected.

SECTION 2: Club Membership Fees and Annual Dues. Member Clubs shall establish membership fees in their constitutions and/or bylaws sufficient to pay all International and District dues, plus a sufficient amount to provide for Club administration.

SECTION 3: Club Constitution and/or Bylaws. A member Club shall not change or amend its constitution and/or bylaws in such manner that it will be inconsistent with any current requirements for affiliation.

SECTION 4: Resignations-Revocation of Charter-Appeals.

- a. Any member Club may resign from JOI by reason of dissolution or other reason, provided all financial obligations to JOI, Optimist International and the District have been fulfilled.
- b. Any Club that fails to conform to the accepted standards for chartered Clubs, or whose conduct is considered by the JOI Board of Directors to be injurious or prejudicial to the image and best interests of JOI or its member Clubs, or violates the Policies of JOI, may have its charter revoked or suspended by a two-third's majority vote of the JOI Board of Directors. Any Club that is more than 150 days in arrears for any indebtedness to JOI or its District administration may have its charter revoked or suspended by the JOI Clubs Department on behalf of the JOI Board of Directors. The JOI Board of Directors may impose such conditions as it may deem reasonable or necessary. The JOI Clubs Department shall send notification, within 15 days of revocation of said Club, to the Secretary/Treasurer of the sponsoring Optimist Club, the youth Club sponsor and president, as well as the JOI District Governor, JOI Club Chair and Optimist District Governor.
- c. In the event the charter and membership of a Club is either revoked or suspended, such Club may, within 30 days of the mailing of the notice of such revocation or suspension, file with the JOI Clubs Department of Optimist International a written appeal of such action, which appeal shall be considered at the next meeting of the JOI Board of Directors. If a Club whose charter has been suspended fails to exercise the right of appeal within the specified period, its charter and membership shall be automatically revoked as of the date of the suspension.

- d. Upon the revocation or suspension of the charter and membership of any Club for any reason whatsoever, such Club shall forfeit all rights and privileges of membership including the right to vote, services provided by JOI, and the right to use the name, slogans, emblems, marks and other insignia of JOI, except that the JOI Board of Directors may, at its discretion, postpone the forfeiture of such rights, privileges and services until the expiration of the appeal period, or if an appeal is received, until the JOI Board of Directors considers the appeal at its next meeting.

SECTION 5: Clubs in Good Standing. A Club in good standing is a Club having a minimum of eight members and having paid all dues and fees to Optimist International, and having submitted a roster.

POLICY V: MEMBERSHIP IN CLUBS

SECTION 1: Membership in Clubs will be by general or public invitation. JOI shall not discriminate based on gender or race.

SECTION 2: Membership. Members of JOI shall not be 19 prior to September 30th of the current administrative year. Suggested age ranges:

Alpha Clubs—6 to 9

Junior Optimist Clubs—10 to 13

Octagon Clubs—14 and older.

POLICY VI: NEW CLUBS

SECTION 1: Requirement for Affiliation. Alphas, Junior Optimist, and Octagon Clubs with their sponsor, (unless no sponsor is available as determined by Optimist International), applying for membership in this organization, shall submit written application for affiliation using the forms provided by the JOI Clubs Department at Optimist International, including officer election report, bylaws, membership roster and fees as established by Optimist International and JOI. New Clubs are required to have “Junior Optimist” listed as part of the Club name.

POLICY VII: INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1: Administration. Junior Optimist International shall be governed by a Board of Directors with the approval of the Optimist International Board of Directors.

SECTION 2: International Board of Directors. The JOI Board of Directors shall consist of the President, the Immediate Past President (age requirement exempted), and four Directors. The JOI Clubs Committee Chairperson appointed by the Optimist International President and staff liaison are non-voting members.

SECTION 3: Qualifications. The President and JOI Board of Directors shall be elected via online elections during the JOI annual convention. They shall take office October 1, following their election. No more than two candidates per District will be eligible to run for the International JOI Board of Directors. Those eligible for the office of Director shall be a member in good standing belonging to a Club in good standing, shall have served a term as Club officer or a District officer and shall be the age of 14 or older by October 1. Those eligible for the office of President must have served as an International Director or District Governor, must be 16 by October 1, and meet the requirements for an International Director. No person may be a nominee for the office of JOI International President if they would hold another concurrent election office higher than Club level. In order to be listed on the ballot, potential candidates for the International JOI Board of Directors must submit an official application and a signed letter from their school principal or equivalent, for those applicants who are still in high school or its equivalent, to the International Office by June 1 prior to convention. Candidates from the floor will be allowed to run for the International JOI Board of Directors or International JOI President only when one or more positions remain vacant after receipt of qualified candidate applications prior to the June 1 deadline. If elected from the floor, the election for that office will be contingent upon the submission of a signed letter from their high school principal or equivalent if in high school, to the Optimist International Staff by September 1. Those nominated from the floor will receive the same privileges as preannounced candidates, with the exception of their name being pre-printed on the ballot. Those eligible for the office of Director will be able to run for a second term with a maximum of one being elected to another term. Current Board members wishing to run for a second term must follow the same nomination procedures as preannounced candidates and may not be nominated from the floor. If more than two current Board members run for election, a primary election will be held and the two highest vote receivers will be added to the ballot.

SECTION 4: Vacancy. For good cause or upon death, resignation or incapacitation of any elected or appointed international officer, or in the event of the failure of any officer to carry out the duties of their office, the Optimist International Board may declare the said office vacant and shall select a successor to fill the remainder of the term based on the recommendation of the JOI Clubs Committee and JOI Board of Directors.

POLICY VIII: INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

SECTION 1: Convention. A convention of JOI shall be held each year as provided in these Policies.

SECTION 2: Time and Place. The JOI Convention will be held annually in a time and place to be determined by the Optimist International JOI Board and the JOI Clubs Committee, and approval by the Optimist International Board of Directors.

SECTION 3: Notice of Annual Convention. The JOI Clubs Department shall issue and cause to be mailed to each member Club an official call for the annual convention at least 60 days prior to the date thereof, in which notice the time and place of the holding of the said annual convention shall be set forth.
