

RUNNING YOUR OPTIMIST QUALIFIER

Revised: 12/7/2021

Set your Tournament date and location by the end of January.

- Complete the District Tournament Logistics form by January 31 and RETURN to the Optimist Junior Golf Department.
- Communicate with the Junior Golf staff if you are having trouble securing a date or course.

If your District does not have a qualifier, junior golfers must go through the at-large application process or travel to another District to advance to the Championship.

If your District sponsors pre-qualifying tournaments, careful coordination and planning of these tournament dates is a must. It is also advisable to arrange an alternate date in case of postponement due to weather or unforeseeable conditions. The following factors should also be considered:

- Competing junior golf events.
- Religious or national holidays.
- School events, such as prom or graduation.
- High school golf schedules.

Choosing a Tournament location

Since most junior tournaments schedule their course arrangements months in advance, the question of where to hold your tournament must be answered as early as possible. As a rule, the more prestigious the golf course that is secured for the District tournament, the more golfers the event will attract. Holding the District qualifying tournament in the middle of your area's heaviest populated areas is also very important.

Recommended number of tournament days

District qualifying tournaments must be conducted using stroke play. "Stroke" play simply means negotiating the entire course using the fewest strokes.

All qualifiers can consist of 18 or 36 holes. A one day 18-hole tournament is highly recommended as junior golfers play in several tournaments a year. Because of cost and their schedules, most golfers would rather play in a one-day 18-hole tournament.

Ways to Register your Golfers for Your Qualifier

You can have your golfers register online or by an entry form. Most golfers prefer online. Payment can set up through PayPal. If you need help in setting up online registration, please contact the Junior Golf Department for assistance. Refer to the sample entry form in the appendix.

Promoting Your Event

Optimist Junior Golf Videos

A promotional video is available to help promote the Optimist Junior Golf program. The video is available on YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AmdlO4x40ZY&t=2s> or the Optimist Junior Golf website www.optimist.org/golf

Qualifying Tournament Flyer

Publicize your qualifier at high schools, country clubs, newspapers, social media, pro shops, public courses and golf shops. Place qualifying tournament flyers at these locations early. Send out a blast email to your past participants.

Email and Social Media

Capture emails at your tournament and send letters of invite to past participants and high school coaches. Social media is an inexpensive way to promote your qualifier. Also utilize social networking sites i.e. Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, LinkedIn, Google+, and Pinterest.

Websites

Each District will have a page on the Optimist International website to use in promoting your event. These pages are set up by Optimist Junior Golf and maintained by the District Chair. The website will contain your tournament details, contact information, online registration (if applicable) and entry form.

Golfer Inquiries

Make sure you promote the following

- Advertise how many junior golfers your District will sponsor to the Optimist International Junior Golf Championship,
- What's the value of the golfer attending the Championship registration costs — make sure they are aware it includes golf, housing and meals.

If players have access to this information early, they will be able to plan and budget accordingly for the event.

The Optimist Junior Golf Department receive numerous requests on where local qualifiers are held. It is essential that we receive timely and accurate information about your event, including the date, location and age divisions offered so Optimist Junior Golf Staff can share this information with the person inquiring about your tournament. It is very important for District chairs to return all phone calls and emails in a timely manner.

Press Releases

At least three weeks prior to your entry deadline, send a pre-event news release to the media announcing your tournament. Include the location, date, contact person, entry fee and deadline for entry. Upon completion of your tournament, send a news release to include complete results and photographs. Submit news releases to local newspapers, high schools, church bulletins and other publications. Contact your local Chamber of Commerce to see if they can help in your promotion. Be sure to always follow up with a phone call. Refer to the sample press releases in the appendix.

Volunteers

Running your own junior golf tournament requires a great deal of planning and preparation, as well as volunteer help. It takes a team of dedicated individuals golf-enthusiasts and non-golfers. Volunteers can be recruited at Optimist meetings or by phoning potential helpers. The golf staff at your chosen tournament site may also be able to provide you with the names of possible volunteers. Remember you cannot do all of the work yourself. However, it is suggested that only one person handle all of the paperwork, including letter writing, entrant inquiries, receipt of entry fees, etc.

Rules and Etiquette

The rules of golf, published by the United States Golf Association (USGA) and subject to local modification, should govern play. All golf courses have their local rules printed on scorecards or posted at the starting tee. Your players should know these local rules before play begins.

Awards Ceremony

While your awards ceremony does not need to be elaborate or expensive, it does require careful planning and thoughtful implementation. Don't forget to thank the golfers, parents, golf course hosting the tournament, the volunteers and your sponsors. This is a great time to reach out to your audience about your local Optimist Club. Make a brief presentation about the Championship and how much you will be sponsoring per age division. Also, announce the names of the other golfers who met your District qualifying criteria and are eligible to advance. After the awards ceremony, gather your winners together to present them with registration material for the Optimist International Junior Golf Championship.

Post-Tournament Responsibilities

After your tournament, remember to send thank you notes to the following individuals who helped you organize and run your event:

- Volunteers,
- Golf course management and staff and Sponsors

Information on the Championship

Prior to your tournament, the Junior Golf Department will mail official Optimist International Junior Golf Championship registration packets to you. Please read up on the information prior to presenting it to the winners so you can help answer their questions and explain what the District will be covering (if anything). All payments to the golfer should be sent immediately to the Optimist Junior Golf Department. Checks are to be made out to the Optimist International Youth Programs Foundation. Have them review the material and the online registration prior to calling the International office as that will answer several of their questions.

Member Recruitment

After your District event, send a complete registration list to both your District Governor and your District Membership Chairperson. This list should include the names of all players, along with their complete addresses, phone numbers and parents' names. This list will prove to be a valuable tool in recruiting new Optimist members.

Combining Efforts with Other Junior Tournaments

Districts with little junior golf history may want to contact other junior golf organizations to inquire about the possibility of combining efforts with one of their tournaments.

Explain the program and Optimists' involvement in junior golf. Make sure they are aware of the age divisions, scoring criteria, qualifier fees and what the benefits are for the golfer. Work with them to find out the best way for golfers to register. Also make sure you are a part of the awards ceremony so you can make a brief presentation about the Championship and what it entails.
